

Valmiki Tiger Reserve

1st Floor, B. Block, Extension Building, Chief Secretariat, Patna - 800015
Phone:- 0612 -2217045
Website: www.tourism.bihar.gov.in

Eco Circuit

Amawaman Lake

WEST CHAMPARAN

Valmiki Nagar Tiger Reserve

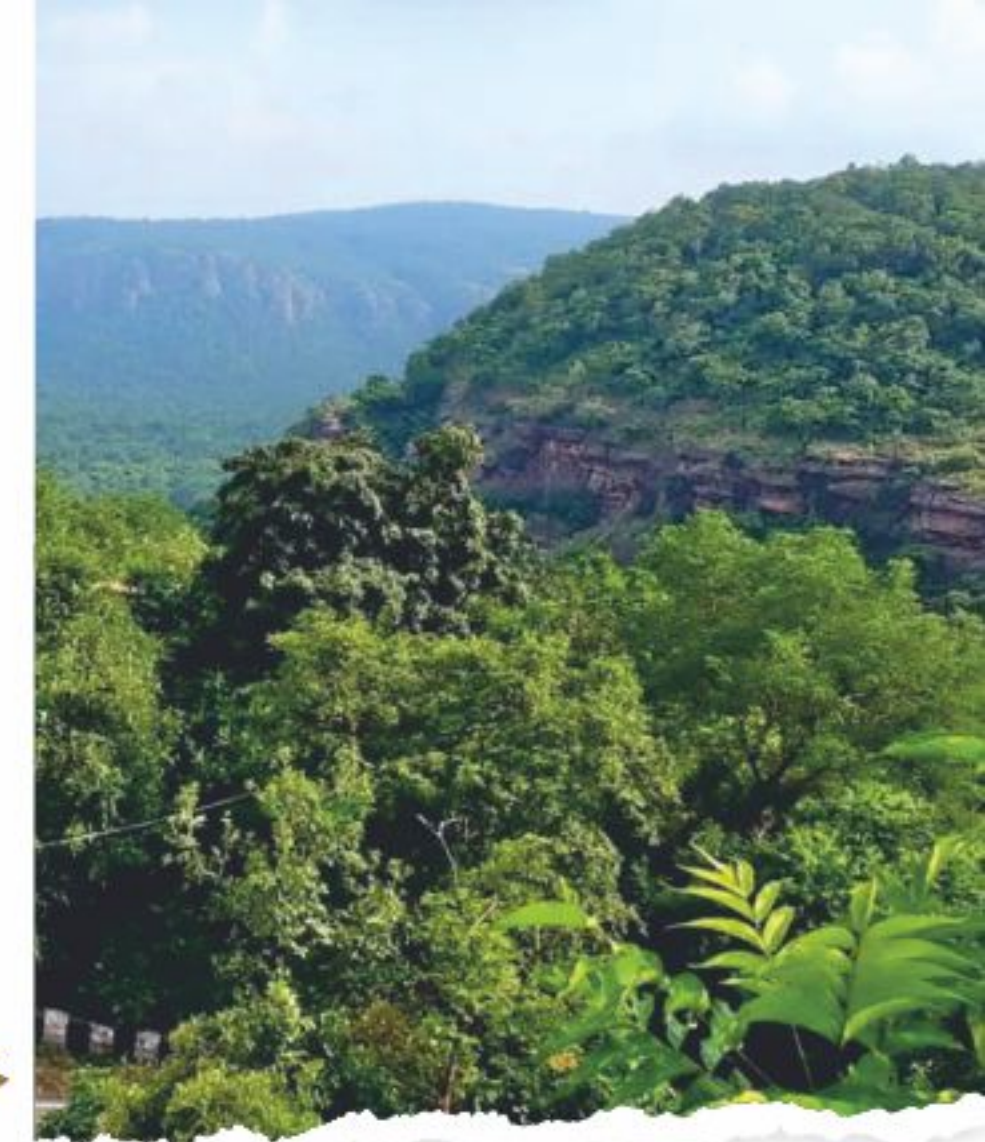

Valmiki Tiger Reserve is a renowned protected area situated in the West Champaran district of Bihar. It covers a vast area of approximately 901 square kilometres and is known for its rich biodiversity and stunning landscapes. The protected areas are bordered by Nepal in north while the Indian state Uttar Pradesh bounds the Wildlife Sanctuary from western side. The reserve is named after the legendary Hindu sage Valmiki, who is believed to have written the epic Ramayana. The Valmiki Nagar Tiger Reserve is home to a diverse array of flora and fauna, including Bengal tigers, leopards, sloth bears, flying fox, flying squirrels, wild cats, langur, several species of deer and antelopes, barking deer, spotted deer, hog deer, sambar, and blue bull, over 250 species of birds and a variety of reptiles and butterflies. The reserve's dense forests, rolling hills, and meandering rivers provide a picturesque backdrop for tourists and nature enthusiasts alike.

Valmiki Tiger Reserve

Amawaman Lake

Amawaman Lake, also known as Amawa Talab, is a picturesque lake located in the West Champaran district. It is a natural freshwater lake that spans over an area of approximately 400 acres and is a popular tourist destination known for offering parasailing and other adventurous water sports.

Udaipur Wildlife Sanctuary

Udaipur Wildlife Sanctuary

Udaipur Wildlife Sanctuary is a protected area located in the West Champaran district. Spread over an area of approximately 8.74 square kilometres the sanctuary is known for its diverse flora and fauna, where you'll find a rich avifauna with a variety of resident and migratory water birds. It is predominantly a forest wetland, situated on an oxbow lake sareyaman and is also one of the important sites for migratory birds in Bihar.

How to Reach

- By Air : Nearest Airport is Patna Airport at a distance of 264 KM.
- By Rail : Nearest Railway Station is Valmiki Nagar Road Railway Station.
- By Road : West Champaran District is well connected by road. Bus or Taxi Services can be used to reach here.

BHAGALPUR

Vikramshila Gangetic Dolphin Sanctuary

The Vikramshila Gangetic Dolphin Sanctuary is a protected area located in the Bhagalpur. Spread over an area of approximately 60 kilometres stretch of the Ganga River, Sultangunj to Kahalgaon, the sanctuary is dedicated to the conservation of the endangered Gangetic Dolphin, which is also the national aquatic animal of India. The sanctuary was established in 1991 and is named after the ancient Vikramshila University that was located nearby.

How to Reach

By Air : Nearest Airport is Patna Airport at a distance of 220 KM.

By Rail : Nearest Railway Station is Bhagalpur Junction.

By Road : Bhagalpur is well connected by road.

MUNGER Bhimbandh Wildlife Sanctuary

Bhimbandh Wildlife Sanctuary

Bhimbandh Wildlife Sanctuary is a protected area located in the Southwest Munger district of Bihar. Established in 1976, the sanctuary spans over an area of approximately 682 square kilometers and is known for its diverse flora and fauna including tigers, leopards, wild boars, sloth bears, chitals, sambars, and many more. This area is also famous for its hot springs, Sita Kund & Rishi Kund.

How to Reach

By Air : Nearest Airport is Patna Airport at a distance of 200 KM.

By Rail : Nearest Railway Station is Munger.

By Road : Munger is well connected by road.

NALANDA

Rajgir Nature & Zoo Safari

The first Glass Sky Walk of the country is opened in Bihar's Rajgir Forest, in a bid to attract both National and International tourists. The Nature Safari spread over an area around 500 hectare, is located in Rajgir-Jethian Path between the Vaibhavgiri and Swarnagiri mountain in the forest area.

Zoo Safari has five zones namely Herbivore Safari, Bear Safari, Leopard Safari, Tiger Safari and Lion Safari which accommodate over 250 herbivores and carnivores, it is a unique destination that offers visitors an opportunity to explore the wilderness and witness the diverse flora and fauna of the region.

Nature and Zoo Safari

NALANDA Ghoda Katora

Etymologically, it means "Horse's Bowl". It is believed that in ancient age it was stables, where the lake now is. It was declared an ecological restoration site by Dept. of Tourism where petrol diesel vehicles are strictly prohibited only horse carts or tongas or e-rickshaws were allowed. The lake is home to many migratory birds from Siberia and Central Asia. Indigenous species of birds are commonly found out over here. Bird lovers frequently visit this place to catch glimpse of siberian cranes and other migratory birds.

Ghoda Katora

Pandu Pokhar

Pandu Pokhar is a historic and picturesque lake spread over an area of 22 acres of land. The lake is believed to have been named after King Pandu, the father of Pandavas who is said to have visited the pond during his exile. The lake is known for its beautiful lotus flowers that bloom during the season, adding to the scenic beauty of the area. It is with unique combination of entertainment and camping makes it a beautiful destination for excursion and vacations.

How to Reach

By Air : Nearest Airport is Patna Airport at a distance of 110 KM

By Rail : Nearest Railway Station is Rajgir.

By Road : Rajgir is well connected by road. Bus or Taxi Services can be used to reach here.

Pandu Pokhar

NAWADA Kakolat

Kakolat is a popular tourist destination located in the Nawada district. It is a stunning waterfall that cascades from a height of approximately 160 feet and is surrounded by lush green hills and dense forests. The waterfall is a popular picnic spot among tourists, offering breath taking views of the natural beauty of the area.

Kakolat Waterfalls

How to Reach

- By Air : Nearest Airport is Patna Airport at a distance of 147 KM
- By Rail : Nearest Railway Station is Nawada.
- By Road: Nawada is well connected by road. Bus or Taxi Services can be used to reach here.

JAMUI Garhi Dam

Garhi Dam is situated on Swamarekha river in the Khaira block of Jamui district. The dam was constructed by the Government of Bihar in 1978 and serves as a major source of water for irrigation and drinking purposes in the region and is now a famous tourist spot for boating.

Garhi Dam

Nagi Dam & Nakti Dam

Nagi Dam and Nakti Dam are another popular destinations located in the Jamui. These two dams are situated near each other, and are known for their scenic beauty, surrounded by picturesque hills and dense forests. The water from the dams is a great source of irrigation for the local farmers. The Nagi- Nakti Bird Sanctuaries have been the home of a wide variety of indigenous species of birds and of migratory birds that turn up during the winters from places like Eurasia, Central Asia, the Arctic Circle, Russia and Northern China. It is a must-visit destinations for those looking to experience the beauty of nature and immerse themselves in the local culture.

How to Reach

- By Air: Nearest Airport is Patna Airport at a distance of 200 KM
- By Rail : Nearest Railway Station is Jhajha.
- By Road: Jamui is well connected by road. Bus or Taxi Services can be used to reach here.

Nagi & Nakti Dam

Indrapuri Barrage

ROHTAS Indrapuri Barrage

Indrapuri Barrage (also known as the Sone Barrage) is across the Sone River in Rohtas district. The Sone River originates near Amarkantak Hill in Chhattisgarh and finally merges with the Ganges River near Patna in Bihar. The Indrapuri Barrage at Indrapuri is 1,407 metres (4,616 ft) long and is the fourth longest barrage in the world. This barrage is known for its scenic beauty and tranquillity and attracts a large number of tourists and visitors every year.

Tutla Bhawani Waterfall

Tutla Bhawani Waterfall

Tutla Bhawani (also Tutrahi or Titula Dham) is located nearby Tilauthu, and is a stunning natural wonder located in the Rohtas. It is approximately 20 KM southwest from Dehri-on-Sone. This beautiful waterfall is nestled amidst the lush green area, and it has a wonderful environment with a waterfall covered by two mountain ranges on north-west and south-east to create a green valley which stretches to 1 mile.

Manjhar Kund & Dhuan Kund

Manjhar Kund and Dhuan Kund are two beautiful natural waterfalls located in the Rohtas district. The waterfalls are situated amidst the lush green forests of the Kaimur hills and are fed by the pristine waters of the nearby streams. It is ideal place for nature lover.

Majhar Kund & Dhuan Kund

Kashish Waterfall

Kashish Waterfall

Kashish Waterfall is a picturesque waterfall located in Rohtas. This waterfall is a hidden gem that has recently gained popularity among nature enthusiasts and adventure seekers. The height of the Kashish Waterfall is approximately 800 feet and one can witness 4 waterfalls falling from the mountain in three directions.

How to Reach

- By Air : Nearest Airport is Gaya Airport at a distance of 136 KM.
- By Rail : Nearest Railway Station is Sasaram.
- By Road : Sasaram is well connected by road. Bus or Taxi Services can be used to reach here.

BANKA

Odhani Dam

Odhani Dam is a popular tourist destination located in Banka. This Dam offers a stunning panoramic view of the river and dam together. Tourists can enjoy motorboat, speed boat and jet skiing and other adventurous water sports while picnicking in the serene surroundings of the dam. The lush greenery and tranquil atmosphere make it an ideal place to relax and unwind.

Odhani Dam

KAIMUR Kaimur Wildlife Sanctuary

Kaimur Wildlife Sanctuary is a stunning natural preserve located in the Kaimur. Covering an area of over 1505 square kilometers, Kaimur Wildlife Sanctuary is the largest sanctuary in the state and is home to a variety of endangered species, including Chinkara, four-horned antelope, blue-bulls, sambar, cheetal, bear and leopard. Snakes, pythons, crocodiles and many more. Kaimur Wildlife Sanctuary is a must-visit destination that offers an unforgettable experience.

Kaimur Wildlife Sanctuary

Telhar Waterfall

The Telhar Waterfall is an amazing gem for the tourists looking for mesmerizing and soothing natural views. This waterfall is situated near the Durgavati River. This waterfall has a dam named 'Karamchat Dam'. It is surrounded by amazing views on all sides and is perfect for a picnic with family & friends.

Telhar Kund

Karkatgarh Waterfall

The Karkatgarh Waterfall has its history rooted to the Mughals and Britisher's Era. This place was a crocodile hunting place for the Mughal rulers and British officials. The lush greenery and stunning serene of the place naturally becomes a crowd puller.

Karkatgarh Waterfall

How to Reach

- By Air : Nearest Airport is Varanasi Airport at a distance of 110 KM.
- By Rail : Nearest Railway Station is Bhabua.
- By Road : Bhabua is well connected by road. Bus or Taxi Services can be used to reach here.

BEGUSARAI

Kanwar Lake

The Kanwar Lake is located 22 km north-west of Begusarai Town in Manjhaul. It is Asia's largest freshwater oxbow lake, formed due to meandering of Burhi Gandak river, a tributary of Ganga. This is an important habitat for migratory birds.

Kusheshwar Asthan
Bird wildlife Sanctuary

Kanwar Lake

DARBHANGA

Kusheshwar Asthan Bird Wildlife Sanctuary

Kusheshwar asthan Bird Sanctuary, spreading over 7019.75 acres is unification of 14 waterlogged villages situated in Kusheshwar asthan block. You can spot endangered species of migratory birds from Mangolia and Siberia, as well as indigenous species like Dalmatian Pelican, Indian Danter, Bar headed goose and many more between November to March.

Gautam Buddha
Wildlife Sanctuary

GAYA

Gautam Buddha Wildlife Sanctuary

The Gautam Buddha Wildlife Sanctuary was constituted in 1976 on the line of the Project Tiger and is in the South-East part of Gaya. It is one of the best faunal and floral area of Bihar. It is rich in terms of biodiversity.

Sanjay Gandhi Biological Park

PATNA

Sanjay Gandhi Biological Park

Sanjay Gandhi Biological Park, also known as Patna Zoo, is a renowned zoological park located in the city of Patna. This park is named after Sanjay Gandhi, the son of the former Prime Minister of India, Indira Gandhi. The park is home to a diverse range of flora and fauna, including many rare and endangered species, making it a must-visit destination for nature enthusiasts and wildlife lovers. With its safari tours, botanical garden, aquarium, and butterfly house, the Sanjay Gandhi Biological Park offers visitors an immersive and educational experience.

Eco Park

ECO Park, also known as Rajdhani Vatika, is a popular eco-friendly park located in Patna. This park is a perfect destination for those seeking a peaceful retreat from the hustle and bustle of the city life. It is designed to promote eco-tourism and environmental conservation, with several areas dedicated to showcasing the rich flora and fauna of the region.

How to Reach

- By Air : Nearest Airport is Patna.
- By Rail : Nearest Railway Station is Patna Junction
- By Road : One can easily get bus or taxi services from other cities or states for Patna.

Eco Park